DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

In Re:

Case No. 04-32345 DDO

Chapter 13

Molly M. Quirk,

Debtor.

NOTICE OF HEARING AND MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM STAY

TO: Debtor Molly M. Quirk; her attorney Richard J. Pearson; United States Trustee; and all other entities specified in Local Rule 1204 (a):

1. General Motors Acceptance Corporation, (“GMAC”), a secured creditor in this Chapter 13 proceeding, by and through duly authorized and undersigned attorneys, moves the Court for the relief requested below, and gives notice of hearing.

2. The court will hold a hearing on this motion on October 25, 2004, at 9:30 a.m., before the Honorable Dennis D. O'Brien, United States Bankruptcy Judge, in Courtroom No. 228a, 200 Federal Building, 316 North Robert Street, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101.

3. Any response to this motion must be filed and delivered not later than October 20, 2004, which is three days before the time set for the hearing (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays), or filed and served by mail no later than October 14, 2004, which is seven days before the time set for the hearing (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays).

UNLESS A RESPONSE OPPOSING THIS MOTION IS TIMELY FILED, THE COURT MAY GRANT THE MOTION WITHOUT A HEARING.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, Bankruptcy Rule 5005, and Local Rule 1070-1. This is a core proceeding. The petition commencing this Chapter 13 case was filed on April 19, 2004. The case is now pending in this Court.

5. This motion arises under 11 U.S.C. § 362 and Bankruptcy Rule 4001. This motion is filed under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 and Local Rules 5005-4, 9006-1, 9013-1 and 9017-1. GMAC requests relief from the automatic stay under § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to foreclose its security interest in certain personal property of the debtor as defined below.

6. On April 8, 2002, the debtor, Molly M. Quirk, executed a promissory note and security agreement in favor of GMAC, in the original principal amount of $16,038.01, plus interest thereon at the stated rate, payable according to the terms and conditions therein, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A". Security for the promissory note consists of a security interest in a motor vehicle, a 2002 Saturn S-Series, VIN # 1G8ZP128X2Z191320. Proof of perfection of the security interest of GMAC is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

7. The promissory note is in default for failure to make payments when due since August 2004, a delinquency in the approximate amount of $534.77. As of April 19, 2004, the amount due was a payoff balance of $9,355.68. On information and belief, the value of the vehicle is $7,600.00 and the debtor has no equity in the vehicle.

8. The loan is in default for failure to make payments when due. GMAC seeks relief from the automatic stay to foreclose its personal property security interest in the vehicle.

9. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), a creditor may be granted relief from the automatic stay for cause, including lack of adequate protection. GMAC believes that cause exists to grant it relief from the automatic stay to foreclose its personal property security interest, for the following reasons:

a. GMAC has not been offered and is not being provided with adequate protection for its interest in the vehicle;

b. The vehicle subject to the security interest of GMAC continues to depreciate and decline in value; and

c. The debtor has stopped making payments to GMAC.

10. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2), a creditor may be granted relief from the automatic stay, if there is no equity in the property which is the subject of the motion, and property is not necessary for an effective reorganization. Here, the debtor has no equity in the vehicle that is the subject of this motion, and the vehicle is not necessary for an effective reorganization in this Chapter 13 proceeding.

11. If any testimony is necessary on any of the facts relative to this motion, testimony will be given by J. Wood, or some other representative of the Movant, General Motors Acceptance Corporation.

WHEREFORE, GMAC requests entry of an Order granting the relief from the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362, to allow it to foreclose its personal property security interest described above, and for such other and further relief as the court deems just and equitable under the circumstances.

OTHER IMPORTANT AGREEMENTS

Finance Charge. The Finance Charge is figured on a daily basis at the Annual Percentage Rate on the unpaid balance of the Amount Financed. The Creditor will apply each payment first to the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge, and then to the unpaid balance of the Amount Financed.

Late Payments and Early Payments. The amounts shown on the front of this contract for the Finance Charge, Total of Payments and the Total Sale Price are based on the assumption that you will make every payment on the day it is due. Your Finance Charge, Total of Payments and Total Sale Price will be more if you pay late and less if you pay early. If all your scheduled payments are equal, charges will take the form of more or fewer payments of the same amount, with a smaller final payment. If your final scheduled payment is larger than your earlier scheduled payments, charges will take the form of a larger or smaller final payment. The Creditor will send you a notice before the due date of the final scheduled payment. The notice will show the amount of the unpaid balance and the new payment schedule.

RV

Ownership and Risk of Loss. You agree to pay the Creditor as you owe under this contract even if the vehicle is damaged, destroyed or missing. You agree not to remove the vehicle from the United States or Canada, or to sell, rent, lease or otherwise transfer any interest in the vehicle or the contract without the Creditor's written permission. You agree not to expose the vehicle to misuse, seizure, or confiscation, or other involuntary transfer, even if the vehicle was not the subject of judicial or administrative action. You will make sure the Creditor's security interest (lien) on the vehicle is shown on the title. If the Creditor pays any repair bills, storage bills, taxes, fines, or other charges on the vehicle, you agree to repay the amount when the Creditor asks for it.

Security Interest. You give the Creditor a security interest in (1) the vehicle being purchased, (2) any accessories, equipment and replacement parts installed in the vehicle, (3) any insurance premiums and charges for service contracts related to the vehicle, (4) any proceeds of insurance policies or service contracts on the vehicle, and (5) any proceeds of insurance policies on your life insurance that are financed in this contract. This security interest covers all amounts you owe in this contract and in any contract, renewal, extension or assignment of this contract. It also covers your other agreements in this contract.

Prepayment. You may prepay the unpaid balance of the Amount Financed in full or in part at any time without penalty. If you do so, you must pay the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge and all other amounts due up to the date of payment.

Required Physical Damage Insurance. You agree to have physical damage insurance on the vehicle. The insurance must cover both collision and comprehensive damage to the vehicle. If you do not have this insurance, the Creditor may buy it for you. If the Creditor does not buy physical damage insurance which covers both interests in the vehicle, it may, if it decides, buy insurance which covers only the Creditor's interest.

The Creditor is under no obligation to buy any insurance, but may do so if it desires. If the Creditor buys either of the coverages, it will let you know what type it is and the charges you must pay. The charges will be the premium for the insurance and a finance charge at the Annual Percentage Rate shown on the front of this contract. You agree to pay the charge in equal installments along with the payments shown on the payment schedule.

If the vehicle is lost or damaged, you agree that the Creditor can take the insurance settlement either to repair the vehicle or to apply to your debt.

Optional Insurance or Service Contracts. This contract may contain charges for optional insurance or service contracts. If the vehicle is repossessed, you agree that the Creditor may claim benefits under these contracts and terminate them to obtain refunds for unearned charges.

Insurance or Service Contract Charges Returned to Creditor. If any charges for required insurance is returned to the Creditor, it may be credited to your account or used to buy similar insurance or insurance which covers only the Creditor's interest in the vehicle. Any refund on optional insurance or service contracts obtained by the Creditor will be credited to your account. You will be notified at what is done.

Required Repayment in Full Before the Scheduled Date. If you fail to pay any payment when due, or if you are declared bankrupt or insolvent, or if a receiver is started by you or against you or your property or if you break any of the agreements in this contract (default), the Creditor can demand that you pay all you owe on this contract at once (not just past due payments). This amount you owe will be the unpaid balance of the Amount Financed plus the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge, and any amounts due because you did not keep contract promises.

Repossession of the Vehicle for Failure to Pay. Repossession means that, if you fail to pay according to the payment schedule or if you break any of the agreements in this contract (default), the Creditor can take the vehicle from you. To take the vehicle the Creditor can enter your property, or the property where it is stored, at any time if it is done properly. If there is any personal property in the vehicle, such as clothing, the Creditor can store it for you. Any accessories, equipment or replacement parts will remain with the vehicle.

Getting the Vehicle Back After Repossession. If the Creditor repossesses the vehicle, you have the right to get it back (redeem) by paying the entire amount you owe on the contract (not just past due payments). The amount you owe will be the unpaid balance of the Amount Financed plus the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge, and all other amounts due, including the cost of taking and storing the vehicle and other expenses that the Seller or the Creditor has had. You must also cure any default in addition to nonpayment of what you owe. Your right to redeem will end when the vehicle is sold.

Sale of the Repossessed Vehicle. The Creditor will send you a written notice of sale at least 10 days before selling the vehicle. If you do not redeem the vehicle by the date on the notice, the Creditor can sell it. The Creditor will use the net proceeds of the sale to pay all or part of your debt.

The net proceeds of sale will be figured this way: Any charges for taking and storing the vehicle, cleaning and advertising, etc., and any attorney fees and court costs will be subtracted from the selling price.

If you owe the Creditor less than the net proceeds of sale, the Creditor will pay you the difference, unless required to pay it to someone else. For example, the Creditor may be required to pay a lender who has given you a loan and also taken a security interest in the vehicle.

If you owe more than the net proceeds of sale, you will pay the Creditor the difference between the net proceeds of sale and what you owe when the Creditor asks for it. If you do not pay this amount when asked, you may also be charged interest at the highest lawful rate until you do pay all you owe to the Creditor.

Collection Costs. If the Creditor hires an attorney to collect what you owe, you will pay the attorney's reasonable fee and any court costs. The attorney's fee will not exceed 15% of the amount that you owe.

Delay in Entering Rights and Changes of this Contract. The Creditor can delay or refrain from entering any of its rights under this contract without telling them. For example, the Creditor can decide the time for making some payments without consulting you. Any change in terms of this contract must be in writing and signed by the Creditor. No oral changes are binding. If any part of this contract is not valid, all other parts will remain enforceable.

Warranty Seller Disavows. You understand that the Seller is not offering any warranties and disavows any implied warranties of merchantability, of fitness for particular purposes, or any other warranties, express or implied by the Seller, covering the vehicle unless the Seller extends a written warranty or service contract within 90 days from the date of this contract.

The foregoing disclaimer of implied warranties does not apply if this contract covers a new vehicle that is obtained primarily for personal use unless you were informed in writing prior to signing this contract that the vehicle was sold on a "cash or carry" basis and that you bear the entire risk as to the quality and performance of the vehicle.

An implied warranty of merchantability generally means that the vehicle is fit for the ordinary purpose for which such vehicles are normally used. A warranty of fitness for a particular purpose is a warranty that may arise when the Seller has reason to know the particular purpose for which you require the vehicle and you rely on the Seller's skill or judgment in selecting a suitable vehicle.

This provision does not affect any warranties covering the vehicle which may be provided by the vehicle manufacturer.

Used Car Buyers Guide. The information you see on the window form for this vehicle is part of this contract. Information on the window form overrides any contrary provisions in the contract of sale.

Assignment to GMAC. If Seller obtained this vehicle from General Motors Corporation (GM) on installment credit terms, this contract will be substituted by Seller for and replace the Seller's obligation to pay GM for the vehicle you are purchasing. This substitution will not change the amount you have agreed to pay the Seller, the payment schedule, the finance charge or any of your rights and duties for this purchase. The terms of this contract set forth your rights and only obligations to GM, or any other holder of this contract.

NOTICE: ANY HOLDER OF THIS CONSUMER CREDIT CONTRACT IS SUBJECT TO ALL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES WHICH THE DEBTOR COULD ASSERT AGAINST THE SELLER OF GOODS OR SERVICES OBTAINED PURSUANT HERETO OR WITH THE PROCEEDS HEREOF. RECOVERY HEREUNDER BY THE DEBTOR SHALL NOT EXCEED AMOUNTS PAID BY THE DEBTOR HEREUNDER.

The preceding NOTICE applies only to goods or services obtained primarily for personal, family, or household use. In all other cases, Buyer will not assert against any subsequent holder or assignee of this contract any claims or defenses the Buyer (debtor) may have against the Seller or manufacturer of the vehicle or equipment obtained under this contract.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

INTRODUCTION

General Motors Acceptance Corporation, (“GMAC”) has made a motion for relief from the automatic stay. GMAC incorporates herein the facts set forth in the notice of hearing and motion for relief from stay.

There is one loan that is the subject of this motion secured by a security interest in a motor vehicle. The loan is in default for failure to make payments when due. GMAC seeks relief from the automatic stay to foreclose its personal property security interest. There is no equity in the vehicle.

ARGUMENT

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), a secured creditor may be granted relief from the automatic stay, including lack of adequate protection. The motion, filed by GMAC, for relief from the automatic stay demonstrates cause for relief from the stay for all reasons set forth in the motion. In the aggregate, these circumstances demonstrate cause for relief from the automatic stay. United Savings Assn. of Texas v. Timbers of Innwood Forest Assoc. Ltd. (In re Timbers of Innwood Assoc. Ltd.), 484 U.S. 365 (1988).

Also, there is little or no equity in the vehicle that is the subject of this motion and the vehicle is not necessary for an effective reorganization, which allows the stay to be lifted pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2). In re Anderson, 913 F.2d 530, 532 (8th Cir. 1990).

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, GMAC requests that the Court issue an Order lifting and terminating the automatic stay provided by 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) to permit GMAC to enforce and foreclose its personal property security interest.
